

Secretary Speaker Series Event

California Natural Resources Agency presents

What We Can Learn from Our Past to Move Toward an Equitable Future

Wednesday, July 15, 2020 | 12:30pm – 2pm

Join us for an important conversation that traces the history of systemic and institutional racism and how it translates into today's workplaces, institutions and general daily life. The series will also provide context and observations on today's Black Lives Matter movement and global uprising against police brutality and systemic racism in the wake of the deaths of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor and so many others.

Moderated by:

George Davis, Executive Director, California African American Museum

Speakers:

Susan D. Anderson, Director of Public Programs, California Historical Society

Corey Matthews, Chief Operating Officer, Community Coalition

Virgil Roberts, Chairman, African American Board
Leadership Institute & Director, Great Public Schools Now
