

Action Item: Approval of Final Industrial Process Water Regulations developed under SBX7-7, Water Conservation Bill of 2009 (including Public Comment)

This is a supplemental agenda item to provide additional information regarding Agenda Item 6.

In January 2011, the Water Commission approved the Industrial Process Water Regulations to begin the formal adoption process under the Administrative Procedure Act. One 45-day public comment period was held and three comments were received. There were no changes made to the regulation based on the comments.

Comment letters were received from:

- The Pacific Institute
- A group of Food Processing and Manufacturing Associations
- A concerned citizen
