

Overview of Strategic Planning Process

Background

The California Water Commission previously adopted a mission statement in April 1998. The Commission does not have a strategic plan.

To describe the Commission's leadership role and its commitment to achieving its statutory responsibilities, staff will work with the Commission and stakeholders to update the existing mission statement and develop a Strategic Plan to guide the Commission's projects and activities.

Contact

Rachel Ballanti
Policy Analyst
California Water Commission
Phone: (916) 653-7937