

Briefing on DWR Climate Change Activities

Background

Elissa Lynn, Program Manager of the Department of Water Resources' Climate Adaptation Program, will provide an overview of the department's current climate change program activities. These activities include the recent development of the Data Analysis Memorandum Report, the first phase of the Climate Action Plan, the Climate Change Handbook for Regional Water Management, and a Climate Literacy Training. Ongoing activities of the Climate Change Technical Advisory Group will also be discussed.

Contact

Maggie Hunnicutt
Staff Services Analyst
California Water Commission
(916) 651-7501