

Comparison of Working Draft of Potential Regulations and Guidelines for SBX7-2, Chapter 8*

Regulations		Guidelines
Commission responsibilities, eligible public benefits, and eligible projects under SBX7-2	§zz
Definitions of Key Terms Used in Regulations	§zz.2	Definitions of Key Terms Used in Guidelines	I.C
Additional explanation of the five eligible public benefits	§zz.2(o)	Additional explanation of the five eligible public benefits	I.D
Basic Steps for Quantifying Physical and Monetary Public Benefits	§zz.3	Additional clarification on what counts as a public benefit, how to categorize benefits and detailed steps to quantify benefits and allocate costs	V.B, V.C, V.D
How a proposed project's public benefits relate to CDFW and State Board environmental values	§zz.4
Requirements to ensure that projects will be operated and managed to provide the funded public benefits	§zz.5	Detailed list of all materials that applicants must submit	V.A, VI
Information on the solicitation package that the Commission will prepare to inform potential applicants about the funding program	§zz.6 (a)	More details on the process for soliciting and selecting projects, including public workshops	IV.A. IV.B
Make-up and role of the Project Evaluation Panel	§zz.6 (b)	More information on the make-up and role of the Project Evaluation Panel	IV.C, VII.B
The Commission's basic responsibilities for each proposed project	§zz.6 (c)	The Commission's basic responsibilities for each proposed project, and how the Commission will reach a funding decision for each proposed project	IV.C, VIII.D
		Who can submit a funding request and what types of projects are eligible	II
		How much funding is available and how it may be used	III
		Projects must improve the Delta and be cost effective	VII
		Criteria that the Panel and the Commission will use to evaluate and rank projects	VIII
		Grant administration details	IX

*Prepared by Water Commission staff to assist with locating information within these documents.