SACRAMENTO –On April 24 and 25, 2018, California Water Commission staff and technical review team members will meet with Water Storage Investment Program (WSIP) applicants to discuss updated technical reviews and staff-recommended Public Benefit Ratios (PBRs). The reviews and staff-recommended PBRs will be posted on the Commission’s website on April 20.

Following is additional information regarding the meeting format, webcast link and remote participation options for the facilitated meetings, which will take place at the Tsakopoulos Library Galleria, 828 I Street, Sacramento.

Each WSIP applicant has been scheduled for an individual meeting of up to 90 minutes with the following format:

- Agenda Review and Ground Rules—Facilitator (5 minutes)
- PBR Overview and Key Issues—Commission staff (5-10 minutes)
- Question and Answer Session with Reviewers – (up to 70 minutes)

The Commission will consider the staff-recommended PBRs at its May 1-3 meeting and make the final determination of each project’s PBR. The Commission will schedule additional public meetings in June to address the other component scores of the WSIP technical review process.
